

The screenshot shows a PDF viewer interface. The top bar includes navigation icons, a page indicator '3 of 32', and a zoom control set to 'Automatic Zoom'. The main content area contains three paragraphs of text. The first paragraph is highlighted in yellow and discusses the motives of the Founding Fathers. The second paragraph is also highlighted in yellow and describes the secret creation of the Constitution. The third paragraph is not highlighted and discusses the concept of brainwashing.

THE motive of our Founding Fathers was totally self-centered. It was their personal greed that inspired them to accept the task of writing the Constitution of the United States and not patriotism! In actuality, the United States is not a land or a place: 'It is a corporation, a legal fiction that existed well before the Revolutionary War.' [See: Republica v. Sween, 1 Dallas 43 and 28 U. S. C. 3002 (15)].

The Constitution of the United States was written in secret by the Founding Fathers and was never presented to the Colonists for a vote. Surely, any document as important as this demanded the approval of the people it governed! Well, it wasn't presented for a vote because the Constitution wasn't created for "We the People," it was created by and for the Founding Fathers, their family, heirs and their posterity! The Constitution is a business plan and any reference contained within it that appears to be the safeguard of a 'Right' is there because none of the Founding Fathers trusted each other. The safeguards were intended to prevent any one or group of them from cutting out the others! Proving that; "There's no honor among thieves!"

Americans are not unlike all other humans who inhabit the earth. All human beings possess malleable minds, which are minds that can be shaped and controlled; and when government shapes and controls a mind, it's called "brainwashing." Brainwashing causes the subject to
